When my songs turn to ashes on my tongue, When I look in the mirror and see I'm no longer young,

Then I got to start the job of separating false from true,

And then I know, I know I need the love of you. $\hfill \square$

When I found tarnish on some of my brightest dreams,

When some folks I trusted turned out not quite what they seemed;

Then I got to start the job of separating false from true,

Then once more I know, I know I need the love of you. $\!\!\!\! \square$

No song I can sing will make Governor Wallace change his mind,

No song I can sing will take the gun from a hate-filled man;

But I promise you, and you, brothers and sisters of every skin,

I'll sing your story while I've breath within. $\quad \square$

We got to keep on keeping on, even when the sun goes down,

We got to live, live, live until another day comes 'round;

Meanwhile, better start over, separating false from true,
