Canti di protesta politica e sociale

Woody Guthrie Tutti i testi

Aggiornato il 24/08/2025

ilDeposito.org è un sito internet che si pone l'obiettivo di essere un archivio di testi e musica di canti di protesta politica e sociale, canti che hanno sempre accompagnato la lotta delle classi oppresse e del movimento operaio, che rappresentano un patrimonio politico e culturale di valore fondamentale, da preservare e fare rivivere.

In questi canti è racchiusa e raccolta la tradizione, la memoria delle lotte politiche e sociali che hanno caratterizzato la storia, in Italia ma non solo, con tutte le contraddizioni tipiche dello sviluppo storico, politico e culturale di un società.

Dalla rivoluzione francese al risorgimento, passando per i canti antipiemontesi. Dagli inni anarchici e socialisti dei primi anni del '900 ai canti della Grande Guerra. Dal primo dopoguerra, ai canti della Resistenza, passando per i canti antifascisti. E poi il secondo dopoguerra, la ricostruzione, il 'boom economico', le lotte studentesche e operaie di fine anni '60 e degli anni '70. Il periodo del reflusso e infine il mondo attuale e la "globalizzazione". Ogni periodo ha avuto i suoi canti, che sono più di semplici colonne sonore: sono veri e propri documenti storici che ci permettono di entrare nel cuore degli avvenimenti, passando per canali non tradizionali.

I'm gonna tell you fascists You may be surprised The people in this world Are getting organized You're bound to lose You fascists bound to lose

Race hatred cannot stop us This one thing we know Your poll tax and Jim Crow And greed has got to go You're bound to lose You fascists bound to lose.

All of you fascists bound to lose: I said, all of you fascists bound to lose: Yes sir, all of you fascists bound to lose: You're bound to lose! You fascists: Bound to lose!

People of every color Marching side to side Marching 'cross these fields Where a million fascists dies You're bound to lose You fascists bound to lose! I'm going into this battle And take my union gun We'll end this world of slavery Before this battle's won You're bound to lose You fascists bound to lose!

All of you fascists bound to lose: I said, all of you fascists bound to lose: Yes sir, all of you fascists bound to lose: You're bound to lose! You fascists: Bound to lose!

Born to win

(1944) di Woody Guthrie Periodo: La seconda guerra mondiale e la Resistenza (1939 -1945) Lingua: inglese Indirizzo: https://www.ildeposito.org/canti/born-win

I had my fun and my troubles I had my hard luck and blues Been up and been down and been sober and drunk But I know that I'm not born to lose.

Born to win. I know I'm born to win. It's a funny old world that I am in. I'll fight to change it like it ought to be. Born to win. I know I'm born to win.

I had women all kinds and all colors In every land where I have been I saw all the people in trouble like me And I know that we're not born to lose. Born to win. I know I'm born to win. It's a funny old world that I am in. I'll fight to change it like it ought to be. Born to win. I know I'm born to win.

You robbed us and beat us and bled us. You worked us and paid us like slaves. I know we're all born to work and to fight And to win or go down in our grave.

Born to win. I know I'm born to win. It's a funny old world that I am in. I'll fight to change it like it ought to be. Born to win. I know I'm born to win.

Woody Guthrie scrisse il testo di questa canzone, che fu poi musicata, dieci anni dopo, da Martin Hoffman, e cantata per la prima volta da Pete Seeger nel 1958. Il 28 gennaio del 1948, in un incidente aereo in California, vicino al confine con il Messico, persero la vita 28 "deportati", ovvero 28 lavoratori messicani che stavano per essere forzatamente rimpatriati.

Big dictators. Speculators Senators And Agitators, They tell what all they gonna do, When they get Into their office, See what they can Take off of us, Take from me and take from you.

Finance-man He frisk us, frisk us Lawyer man, He won't protect us, Where O where is a honest man

Money-man, he Clip your sister. Banker man, he take your land. 'Cross the Country I been lookin', Seldom see Anybody workin' Is the work of the world all done? Come a big rain, Come big thunder, Come big crop Plow crop under, Can't beat finance, Man and weather, Workin' man got to Got together, Have a big meetin' down in town Workin'-man gotta Take the groceries Feed the widows, Feed the orphans. Pass the groceries all around.

Indians never waste a one.

Ludlow massacre

(1944) di Woody Guthrie Periodo: La seconda guerra mondiale e la Resistenza (1939 -1945) Lingua: inglese Tags: lavoro/capitale Indirizzo: https://www.ildeposito.org/canti/ludlow-massacre

It was early springtime when the strike was on, They drove us miners out of doors, Out from the houses that the Company owned, We moved into tents up at old Ludlow.

I was worried bad about my children, Soldiers guarding the railroad bridge, Every once in a while a bullet would fly, Kick up gravel under my feet.

We were so afraid you would kill our children, We dug us a cave that was seven foot deep, Carried our young ones and pregnant women Down inside the cave to sleep.

That very night your soldiers waited, Until all us miners were asleep, You snuck around our little tent town, Soaked our tents with your kerosene.

You struck a match and in the blaze that started, You pulled the triggers of your gatling guns, I made a run for the children but the fire wall stopped me Thirteen children died from your guns.

I carried my blanket to a wire fence corner, Watched the fire till the blaze died down, I helped some people drag their belongings, While your bullets killed us all around.

I never will forget t he look on the faces Of the men and women t hat awful day, When we stood around to preach their funerals, And lay the corpses of the dead away.

We told the Colorado Governor to call the President, Tell him to call off his National Guard, But the National Guard belonged to the Governor, So he didn't try so very hard.

Our women from Trinidad they hauled some potatoes, Up to Walsenburg in a little cart, They sold their potatoes a nd brought some guns back, And they put a gun in every hand.

The state soldiers jumped us in a wire fence corners, They did not know we had these guns, And the Red-neck Miners mowed down these troopers, You should have seen those poor boys run.

We took some cement and walled that cave up, Where you killed these thirteen children inside, I said, "God bless the Mine Workers' Union" And then I hung my head and cried.

Il Massacro di Ludlow (Colorado) avvenne il 20 aprile 1914, a seguito della feroce repressione degli scioperi dei minatori da parte delle guardie private dei proprietari delle miniere, guidati dalla Colorado Fuel and Iron Company (della famiglia Rockefeller). Furono uccise almeno venti persone, fra cui dodici fra donne e bambini. Esso fu il momento più tragico della lotta dei minatori, che coinvolse fino a dodicimila lavoratori e durò dall'autunno del 1913 fino al dicembre 1914

Old Judge Thayer

(1946) di Woody Guthrie Periodo: La ricostruzione e il boom economico (1946-1966) Lingua: inglese Tags: anarchici Indirizzo: https://www.ildeposito.org/canti/old-judge-thayer

Old Judge Thayer, take your shackle off of me; Old Judge Thayer, take your shackle off of me. Turn your key and set me free, Old Judge Thayer, take your shackle off of me.

The monkey unlocked the courthouse door, An' the elephant oiled the hardwood floor; In did jump the kangaroo, An' in did hop the rabbits, too.

Next in come the two baboons, Next in rolled a dusty storm, Next in waddled the polar bear To keep the judge and jury warm.

Ever'body knows the mockingbird Wrote down ever' word he heard; The lawyers all were foxy-sly, With a foxy nose an' a foxy eye.

The 'possum used the big stiff broom, Then he polished the new spitoon; Up did smile the crocodile, Said, "Here comes the jury down the aisle."

Old momma catfish asked the trout, "What's this trial here all about?" Little baby suckerfish upped and said, "The Judge has caught him a couple of Reds."

Well, the rattlesnake asked the bumble bee, "Who's this Sacco an' Vanzetti?" "Are they the men," asked the momma quail, "That shot the clerks at the Slater Mill?"

The mosquito sung out with his wings,

Said, "I was there an' seen the whole durn thing; Saw the robbers fire their guns, But I didn't see these men, neither one."

Well, the big-eyed owl looked around, "They said that Sacco's cap was found Down on Pearl Street, on the ground, Where the payroll guards both got shot down."

"That cap don't fit on Sacco's head," The big black crow flapped up and said, "They tried that cap on Sacco here, And it fell down around both his ears."

Well, the camel asked the old giraffe, "Did these two fellas duck the draft, By runnin' down below the Mexican line? To keep from fightin' on the rich man's side?"

The lumber duck did rattle his bill, "All the ducks and geese are flyin' still Down toward Mexico's warm sun To try to dodge the rich man's gun."

Up did waddle a lucey goose, "I think these men ought to be turned loose. But old Judge Thayer, he swore to his friends These men'll get a chair or the noose."

When the guilty verdict came, An' seven years in jail they'd laid, When these two men there did die, The animals met on the earth and sky.

"See what fear and greed can do, See how it killed these sons so true. Us varmints has got to get together, too, Before Judge Thayer kills me and you."

Red wine

(1947) di Woody Guthrie Periodo: La ricostruzione e il boom economico (1946-1966) Lingua: inglese Tags: anarchici Indirizzo: https://www.ildeposito.org/canti/red-wine

Oh, pour me a drink of Italian red wine; And let me taste it and call back to mind Once more in my thoughts, and once more in my soul, This story as great, if not greater, than all.

The AP news on June 24th Told about a patrolman named Earl J. Vaugh. He stepped on a Main Street trolley car And arrested Sacco and Vanzetti there.

The article tells how Earl J. Vaugh Is now retiring as an officer of law; This cop goes down in my history For arresting Sacco and Vanzetti that day.

It was 1920, the 5th of May, The cop and some buddies took these men away, Off of the car and out and down, And down to the jail in Brockton town.

"There's been a killing and a robbery At the Slater Morrill shoe factory; You two gents are carryin' guns, And you dodged the draft when the war did come."

"Yes, 'tis so, 'tis so, 'tis so, We made for the borders of Mexico. The rich man's war we could not fight, So we crossed the border to keep out of sight."

"You men are known as radical sons, You must be killers, you both carry guns." "I'm a night watchman, my friend peddles fish, And he carries his gun when he's got lots of cash."

Oh, pour me a glass of Germany's beer, Russia's hot vodka, so strong and clear, Pour me a glass of Palestine's Hock, Or just a moonshiner's bucket of chock.

Now, let me think, and let me see How these two men were found guilty. How a hundred and sixty witnesses passed by, And the ones spoke for them was a hundred and five. Out of the rest, about fifty just guessed, Out of the five that was put to the test Only the story of one held true, After a hundred and fifty nine got through.

And on this one, uncertain and afraid, She saw the carload of robbers, she said. One year later, she remembered his face, After seein' his car for a second and a half.

She told of his hand, an' his gun, an' his ears, She told of his shirt, an' the cut of his hair. Remembered his eyes, an' his lips, an' his cheeks, And Eva Splaine's tale sent these men to the chair.

I was right there in Boston the night that they died, I never did see such sight in my life; I thought the crowds would pull down the town, An' I was hopin' they'd do it and change things around.

I hoped they'd pull Judge Thayer on down From off of his bench and they'd chase him around. Hoped they'd run him around this stump And stick him with a devil tails about ever' jump.

Wash this tequila down with gin An' a double straight shot of your black Virgin rum. My ale bubbled out an' my champagne is flat, I hear the man comin', I'm grabbin' my hat.

Showed me the cloth with big hole in it. One block from Suassos Lane.

My name is Melvin Corl, I's paintin' my fishin' schooner. Vanzetti talked to me an hour, About a mile from Suassos Lane.

How could I be in South Braintree, Killin' men there in front of the fact'ry, When all these friends and others saw me Cartin' my fish in Suassos Lane?

I tell you workin' people, Fight hard for higher wages, Fight to kill blackmarket prices, This is why you take my life.

I tell you workin' people, Fight hard for cleaner houses, Fight hard for the wife and children, That's why they took my life.

Suassos Lane is just an alley Up here in old north Plymouth. You saw my fish cart Roll here in Suassos Lane.

The 1913 Massacre

(1944) di Woody Guthrie Periodo: La ricostruzione e il boom economico (1946-1966) Lingua: inglese Tags: lavoro/capitale, repressione, miniera Indirizzo: https://www.ildeposito.org/canti/1913-massacre

Take a trip with me in nineteen thirteen To Calumet, Michigan, in the copper country I'll take you to a place called Italian Hall Where the miners are having their big Christmas ball

I'll take you through a door, and up a high stairs Singing and dancing is heard everywhere I will let you shake hands with the people you see And watch the kids dance round that big Christmas tree

You ask about work and you ask about pay They'll tell you that they make less than a dollar

[a day Working the copper claims, risking their lives

So it's fun to spend Christmas with children and wives

There's talking and laughing and songs in the air And the spirit of Christmas is there everywhere Before you know it, you're friends with us all And you're dancing around and around in the hall

Well, a little girl sits down by the Christmas tree [lights To play the piano, so you gotta keep quiet To hear all this fun you would not realize That the copper-boss thug-men are milling outside the [door One of them yelled and he screamed, "There's a fire!" A lady, she hollered, "There's no such a thing! Keep on with your party, there's no such a thing" A few people rushed, and it was only a few "It's only the thugs and the scabs fooling you" A man grabbed his daughter and carried her down But the thugs held the door and he could not get out And then others followed, a hundred or more But most everybody remained on the floor The gun-thugs they laughed at their murderous joke While the children were smothered on the stair by the [door Such a terrible sight I never did see We carried our children back up to their tree The scabs outside still laughed at their spree And the children that died there were seventy-three The piano played a slow funeral tune And the town was lit up by a cold Christmas moon The parents they cried and the miners they

The copper-boss thugs stuck their heads in

"See what your greed for money has done"

This land is your land

(1940)di Woody Guthrie Periodo: La seconda guerra mondiale e la Resistenza (1939 -1945) Lingua: inglese Indirizzo: https://www.ildeposito.org/canti/land-your-land

This land is your land, this land is my land From California to the New York island; From the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream waters

This land was made for you and me.

As I was walking that ribbon of highway, I saw above me that endless skyway, I saw below me that golden valley, This land was made for you and me.

I've roamed and rambled and I followed my footsteps To the sparkling sands of her diamond deserts; And all around me a voice was sounding: This land was made for you and me.

When the sun came shining, and I was strolling,

And the wheat fields waving and the dust clouds rolling, As the fog was lifting a voice was chanting: This land was made for you and me.

Was a high wall there that tried to stop me And on the sign it said "No Trespassing." But on the other side it didn't say nothing, That side was made for you and me.

In the shadow of the steeple I saw my people, By the relief office I seen my people; As they stood there hungry, I stood there asking Is this land made for you and me?

Nobody living can ever stop me, As I go walking that freedom highway; Nobody living can ever make me turn back This land was made for you and me.

Two Good Men

(1946) di Woody Guthrie Periodo: La ricostruzione e il boom economico (1946-1966) Lingua: inglese Tags: anarchici Indirizzo: https://www.ildeposito.org/canti/two-good-men

Say, there, did you hear the news? Sacco worked at trimmin' shoes; Vanzetti was a peddlin' man, Pushed his fish cart with his hand.

Two good men a long time gone, Two good men a long time gone, Sacco an' Vanzetti are gone, Two good men a long time gone (Left me here to sing this song).

Sacco's born across the sea, Somewhere over in Italy; Vanzetti born of parents fine, Drank the best Italian wine.

Sacco sailed the sea one day, Landed up in the Boston Bay. Vanzetti sailed the ocean blue, An' landed up in Boston, too.

Sacco's wife three children had; Sacco was a family man. Vanzetti was a dreamin' man, His book was always in his hands.

Sacco earned his bread and butter Bein' the factory's best shoe cutter. Vanzetti spoke both day and night, Told the workers how to fight.

I'll tell you if you ask me

'Bout this payroll robbery. Two clerks was killed by the shoe fact'ry, On the streets in South Braintree.

Judge Thayer told his friends around That he had cut the radicals down. "Anarchist bastard" was the name Judge Thayer called these two good men.

I'll tell you the prosecutor's name, Katzman, Adams, Williams, Kane. The Judge and lawyers strutted down, They done more tricks than circus clowns.

Vanzetti docked in nineteen eight; Slept along the dirty street, Told the workers "Organize," And on the 'lectric chair he dies.

All you people ought to be like me, And work like Sacco and Vanzetti, And everyday find ways to fight On the union side for the workers' rights.

Well, I ain't got time to tell this tale, The dicks and bulls are on my trail. But I'll remember these two good men That died to show me how to live.

All you people in Suassos Lane, Sing this song and sing it plain. All you folks that's comin' along, Jump in with me and sing this song

Union Maid

(1940) di Woody Guthrie Periodo: La seconda guerra mondiale e la Resistenza (1939 -1945) Lingua: inglese Tags: lavoro/capitale, femministi Indirizzo: https://www.ildeposito.org/canti/union-maid

There once was a union maid, she never was afraid Of goons and ginks and company finks and the deputy sheriffs who made the raid. She went to the union hall when a meeting it was called, And when the Legion boys come 'round She always stood her ground.

Oh, you can't scare me, I'm sticking to the union, I'm sticking to the union, I'm sticking to the union. Oh, you can't scare me, I'm sticking to the union, I'm sticking to the union 'til the day I die. This union maid was wise to the tricks of company spies, She couldn't be fooled by a company stool, she'd always organize the guys. She always got her way when she struck for better pay. She'd show her card to the National Guard And this is what she'd say

You gals who want to be free, just take a tip from me: get you a man who's a union man and join the ladies' auxiliary. Married life ain't hard when you got a union card, A union man has a happy life when he's got a union wife.

La canzone venne alla luce in un pomeriggio di giugno del 1940, quando W. Guthrie, adattando il suo testo alla musica di una ballata già esistente ("Red wing"), la eseguì su richiesta dell'organizzatore della sede locale del partito comunista, in un ufficietto di Oklahoma City, alla presenza di un piccolo gruppo di operai addetti all'estrazione del petrolio dai giacimenti.

Il primo frammento (di quella che successivamente sarebbe diventata la terza strofa), fu registrato sempre in un pomeriggio, ma del 1946, su un disco in acetato da Moses Asch della Smithsonian ed è l'unico in cui Guthrie esegue personalmente la sua canzone (insieme a P. Seeger che era con lui in quel momento), di cui si conosca l'esistenza (tutte le incisioni successive di "Union maid" infatti, sono eseguite da altri cantanti).
